

Massachusetts Emergency Management Agency - MEMA 101

A workshop for Wellesley volunteers and the community

MEMA IS THE STATE AGENCY RESPONSIBLE FOR COORDINATING THE RESPONSE TO EMERGENCIES AND DISASTERS

Have you ever wondered about the professionals that stand behind the Governor during a press conference after a major storm or disaster? Most of those faces represent experts from the Massachusetts Emergency Management Agency (MEMA). Richard LaTour, Jr., Local Coordinator from MEMA will join us on Tuesday, December 1, 2015 to provide an overview of MEMA's structure and organization.

MEMA 101 will cover:

- Who's who and what's what
- Examples of actions during recent disasters
- Connection to local responders
- How you can prepare for emergencies

WHEN: Tuesday, December 1, 2015
WHERE: Wellesley Free Library
TIME: 6:30-8:00 PM
COST: FREE!
RSVP: Cheryl Lefman
clefman@wellesleyma.gov
781-235-0135

*Light dinner will be served
Attendees will receive goody bags!*

This workshop is sponsored by Wellesley Health Department and
Wellesley Free Library